The Executor processes depersonalized data about the Customer if this is allowed in the User's browser settings (enabled saving of 'cookies' and use of JavaScript technology).

6. Obligations of the Parties

- The Executor undertakes to provide legal assistance, if possible, to the Client for a fee of 10% of the amount paid.
- The Executor is prohibited from transferring clients' personal information to third parties, except where necessary.
- The Executor may terminate the agreement unilaterally in case of violations of the agreement by the Customer.
- The Customer undertakes to provide all necessary information to the Executor.
- If the Customer terminates cooperation unilaterally after receiving an official court decision in favor of the Customer, the Customer must pay for the services of the Executor 10% of the amount of the court claim won.
- The Customer is obliged not to disclose information to third parties unrelated to the proceedings.

7. Procedure for Collection, Storage, Transfer and Other Types of Processing of Personal Data

The security of personal data processed by the Executor is ensured through legal, organizational, and technical measures necessary to fully comply with current legislation in the field of personal data protection.

The Executor ensures the confidentiality of personal data and takes all possible measures to exclude access to personal data by unauthorized persons.

The Customer's personal data will never, under any circumstances, be transferred to third parties, except in cases related to compliance with current legislation.

If inaccuracies in personal data are identified, the User may update them independently by sending a notification to the Executor by email marked 'Updating personal data.'

The period of processing personal data is unlimited. The Customer may at any time withdraw consent to the processing of personal data by sending the Executor a notification via email marked 'Withdrawal of consent to the processing of personal data.'

8. Cross-Border Transfer of Personal Data

Before starting the cross-border transfer of personal data, the Executor must ensure that the foreign state to whose territory the transfer is intended provides reliable protection of the rights of personal data subjects.

Cross-border transfer of personal data to the territories of foreign states that do not meet the above requirements may only be carried out if there is written consent of the subject of personal data to the cross-border transfer of his/her personal data and/or the execution of a contract to which the subject of personal data is a party.

9. Final Provisions

The Customer may obtain any clarifications on issues of interest regarding the processing of his/her personal data by contacting the Executor via email.

Any changes to the Policy for processing personal data by the Executor will be reflected in this document. The Policy is valid indefinitely until replaced by a new version.
